■ Delivery of Works

Entirely at the author's cost. If the foreign partner organizes shared handover of drawings, it is possible to agree on individual terms of contract.

Works should be labelled in correspondence with the application form.

Works will be accepted non framed, without passe-partout, safely wrapped in a firm package to ensure safe delivery and its return to artist.

The drawings and the application form including the pay receipt must be sent by 30 May, 2010 (date of postal stamp is relevant).

Works must be delivered free of all freight charges. A package burdened by any postal charges will not be accepted. The works of authors who will not pay the required fee of 50,- EUR in time will not be included in the competition.

■ Promotion of the exhibition and the catalogue

a) The application for the participation in the exhibition allows the organizer to use free of charge the replicas of the works, slides or videotapes submitted by the participants for the catalogue, for promotion of the exhibition or for educational activities.

b) Authors of the awarded works agree in advance that their works may be included in a collection which will be displayed in some European and other countries. The works will be returned after these exhibitions.

c) The organizer will publish a catalogue with replicas of the exhibited works. Each artist whose works will be exhibited is entitled for inclusion in the catalogue with the reproduction of one of his/her works and the basic personal data. (S)he will also receive one free issue of the catalogue.

■ Return of Works

Works will be returned to the authors at the organizer's cost.

■ Selection of Exhibits

Works submitted by participants will be selected by an international jury with regard to their artistic and spatial qualities and on the basis of meeting the terms of participation.

■ Prizes

Works exhibited at the VII. International Biennial of Drawing Pilsen 2010 will be judged by a qualified international jury. This jury will also award the Grand Prix.
